

What Students Say About ODFL

“I never felt I could actually do good in the world. Now I see that I can.”

~Katie Troxell, St. Francis High School

“This is the best thing we did all year. No, wait. This is the best thing I’ve ever done.”

~Rachel Clark, Gunn High School

“I don’t think kids understand how much power they really have. If every one of us does just a little we really can change the world.”

~Emily Lippe, Pinewood High School

“It’s almost like we’re doing as much good for ourselves as we are for those who are getting the school.”

~Meaghan Neider, Sacred Heart High School

“For one dollar we built a school that will last for generations? It’s unreal.”

~Margaret Lewis, Los Altos High School

“Nothing is more rewarding than coming home knowing you’ve spent your day the best way possible - helping others.”

~Jeffery Lord, Centennial High School

“It was fun, it was easy and everybody really felt like they had a sense of purpose.”

~Emma Ayers, Burlingame High School

“This brought our school together like a family. THANK YOU.”

~Christine Lu, Evergreen Valley High School

“This has been the most meaningful experience of my high school career.

~Lauren Crum, Los Altos High School
