SOPUDEP School Pétion-Ville, Haiti

SOPUDEP (Society of Providence United for the Economic Development of Pétion-Ville) is a Haitian founded and run grassroots social organization located in Port-au-Prince, Haiti. It provides free accessible education to adults and children, and supports women's rights and economic empowerment for the poor. SOPUDEP is determined to use the power of education to improve life for the poorest members of the community, creating pride and hope for a better future. The organization was officially recognized by the Haitian Ministry of Social Affairs in 1994 and again in 2000 by the City of Pétion-Ville.

SOPUDEP's most ambitious project is its accredited K-12 school. It is a comprehensive private school serving the poorest members of the community, those who cannot afford either Haiti's public school system or other private schools. They are in desperate need of an additional classroom to fill the need of the many children hoping to attend school.
